

Lessons at Miss Mart's Kinder

Around the corner from Buffington Grammar,
In the house that his Dad built with nails and a hammer,
Lives a clever young boy they call Byron Jack,
Who dislikes bedtime, but does love a snack.

With friends Max and Charli, every other day,
He visits Miss Mart's kinder, for lessons and a play.
And while mischievous Mike is playing the fool,
The other three are learning - to be ready for school.
